Re: United States v. Paul Haylett
21 Cr. 464 (VB)

APPLICATION GRANTED
SO ORDERED:

Vincent L. Briccetti, U.S.D.J.

Dated: 10/20/21
White Plains, NY

Dear Judge Briccetti:

The parties write jointly to request that the motion schedule in this case be held in abeyance. At the September 27, 2021 pretrial conference in this matter, the Court set a pretrial motion briefing schedule that would begin with the defendant's motion filing on October 25.

The parties now believe the matter can be resolved without motion practice. Because of this development, the parties request that the Court hold the motion schedule in abeyance to allow (1) the parties to finalize the plea agreement in this matter and (2) for the Court to take the defendant's plea. As soon as the plea agreement is finalized in this matter, the parties will alert the Court to schedule a plea.

Please do not hesitate to reach out with any questions.

Respectfully submitted,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS
United States Attorney
